

2011 Boston Flower & Garden Show Professional Gardens Major Awards

Allen C. Haskell Award

Presented by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society for a professional garden exhibit that shows distinction in landscape design with a heavy emphasis on color using rare and unusual plant material, mainly new species and cultivars that have been introduced but not readily available to the trade.

Michael C. Jardin Fine Gardens, Lakeville, MA & Katsura Gardens, Plymouth, MA

Best of Show Award

Presented by the Boston Flower & Garden Show to the most meritorious exhibit in the show.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

Boston Flower & Garden Show $1K Premium Award for Forced Plant Material –

Presented for use of outstanding forced plant material hardy in New England. Gardens by amateur groups are eligible only for the $1,000 Premium Award.

Newport Flower Show, Newport, RI

Boston Flower & Garden Show $2K Premium Award for Forced Plant Material -

Presented for use of outstanding forced plant material hardy in New England.

Crystal Brinson (Horticulturalist), Fairhaven, MA

Boston Flower & Garden Show $3K Premium Award for Forced Plant Material -

Presented for use of outstanding forced plant material hardy in New England.

Miskovsky Landscaping, Falmouth, MA & Allen C. Haskell Horticulturists, Inc.

Boston Society of Landscape Architects Award

For an exhibit of excellence in landscape architecture which conveys the underlying design principles to the public.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

Cary Award Certificate

A $500 award presented annually by the Worcester County Horticultural Society to the exhibit which best communicates to the public the benefits of using Cary Award winning plants in the landscape through their incorporation in an outstanding landscape display.

Heimlich Nurseries, Woburn, MA

Ecological Landscape Association Environmental Vision Award

Presented to the exhibit that best demonstrates the design and execution of ecological concepts.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

Edmund V. Mezitt Award presented by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society

Presented by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society for a superior display using azaleas or rhododendrons reliably winter hardy in central New England (USDA Zone 6 or colder) and forced by the exhibitor.

Heimlich Nurseries, Woburn, MA

Emily Seaber Parcher Award

Presented by the Landscape Design Council of the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, Inc. for excellence in landscape design of a naturalistic garden smaller than 1,000 square feet.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

Horticultural Club of Boston Award

For horticultural perfection.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

Horticulture Helps Award

To the exhibit that best uses horticulture to aid a cause or expand awareness of an issue or condition

Miskovsky Landscaping, Falmouth, MA & Allen C. Haskell Horticulturists, Inc.

Landscape Design Council of the Garden Club Federation of MA Award I

For excellence in landscape design in a professional garden exhibit of less than 1,000 square feet.

New England Land Artisan, Statham, NH & Potted Up, Boston, MA

Landscape Design Council of the Garden Club Federation of MA Award II

For the effective use of garden ornaments, water features, specimen trees, or topiary in creating good design.

New England Land Artisan, Statham, NH & Potted Up, Boston, MA

Massachusetts Association of Landscape Professionals Award -

Presented to the exhibit that shows a clear synthesis of landscape composition, hardscape materials, plant selection and finishes to illustrate the best professional practices.

New England Land Artisan, Statham, NH & Potted Up, Boston, MA

Massachusetts Dept. of Agricultural Resources Award

Miskovsky Landscaping, Falmouth, MA & Allen C. Haskell Horticulturists, Inc.

An award provided by the Massachusetts Department of Agricultural Resources for the best exhibit staged by a commercial grower in Massachusetts.

Massachusetts Dept of Agricultural Resources Ribbon – Non-Profit Organization

Massachusetts Master Gardeners Association

Massachusetts Dept of Agricultural Resources Ribbon – Plant Society

All New England Orchid Societies

Massachusetts Dept of Agricultural Resources Ribbon – Student Group -

Garden Design School USA

Massachusetts Flower Growers Association Award

For best use of flowering plants including herbaceous flowering plants and perennials.

New England Nurseries, Bedford, MA & William Gaipo Landscape Design & Development, Tyngsboro, MA

Massachusetts Nursery & Landscapers Association Award -

For distinctive use of hardy plant material.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

New England Nursery Association Award

Presented to the exhibit that best utilizes a range of New England native plants, and their cultivars, in a visually appealing and environmentally sensible setting.

Peter R. Sadeck, Lakeville, MA

People's Choice Award

For the most popular show exhibit as selected by visitors to the Preview Party for the Boston Flower & Garden Show.

Mahoney's Garden Centers, Brighton, Concord, East Falmouth, Osterville, Tewksbury, Wayland & Winchester, MA

Silver Medal of the Worcester Horticultural Society

To the exhibit of a plant society, school or other non-profit organization which best communicates horticultural technique(s) to the public.

Bonsai Study Group